Do's and Don'ts of Small Talk

Do's:

- Smile and maintain friendly body language.
- Listen actively and respond with interest.
- Ask open-ended questions.
- Keep the tone light and positive.
- Respect cultural differences.

Don'ts:

- Avoid controversial or personal topics.
- Don't interrupt or dominate the conversation.
- Avoid gossip or negativity.
- Don't ignore body language cues from others.

Cultural Difference Example

In the United States, people often start small talk with weather or sports, while in Japan, small talk is more reserved, focusing on polite greetings or appreciation. Understanding such nuances prevents awkward moments and builds mutual respect.
